Outdoor retreats should reflect your own individual style. Whether your desire is for security, privacy, traffic flow or aesthetics, Enduris has a design for you. Our privacy panels are available in three variegated grain patterns – handsome, earthy blends that match or contrast with your home's siding, deck or porch.

Our variegated panels are created using a unique color manufacturing process that results in a natural-looking grain pattern. The light and dark grains complement each other and give the panels texture and depth. Variegated Cream is a blend of tan, khaki, white and gray; Variegated Tan is a warm mix of tan and khaki; and Variegated Khaki is rich, dark and elegant. Because we create the variegated patterns from mixtures of our existing solid colors, you can mix and match posts, rails, and pickets with confidence to produce a panel to your liking.

Designing your fence is easy. Start with Tan posts, rails and caps and choose Variegated Tan privacy panels for a real harmonious look. Or choose the same Tan rail elements and go darker with the panels in Khaki. You might mix Khaki posts, caps and rails with Variegated Cream privacy panels.

We've made it even easier to visualize by creating a Fence Design Studio on our website. It allows you to set up any combination of solid, variegated or mix and match options. Go to www.enduris.com, click on Fence Studio and follow the simple directions.

PLUS, New Variegated Tan Post & Rail Fencing

The mystifying beauty of a darker wood-grain post and rail immediately stands alone when compared to white. It works well as an accent for a smaller property, or as a stunning complement to a larger estate. Our manufacturing process assures an inconsistent, natural-looking wood grain pattern on posts and rails – no two are alike.

Mark your boundaries,
accent your property—with style.

It's a fresh, new look you won't see anywhere else.

We've taken the subtle woodgrains you find in nature, and incorporated them into our new Post & Rail fencing system. And, unlike some rolled-on woodgrains, there's no repeat pattern to our variegated fence.

Not all low-maintenance fences are created equally.

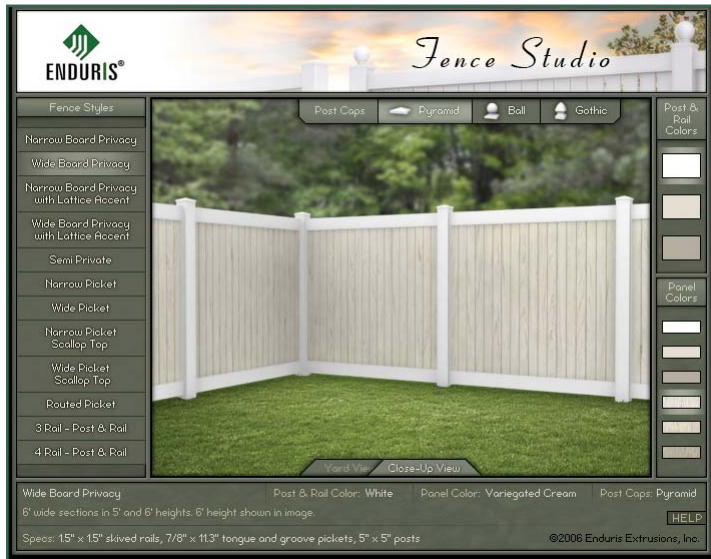

Enduris fencing is designed, manufactured and engineered to be one of the best values in landscaping today. Produced from rigid polyvinyl chloride (PVC), its UV inhibitors and additives make it impervious to the elements, yet flexible enough to resist cracking.

These profiles are produced for durability and strength under exacting quality control checks. The combination of strength and long-lasting good looks is exactly what you're looking for in vinyl fencing. There's virtually no maintenance, other than an occasional spray with a garden hose, or brushing off grass clippings.
